

STAINED by Cheryl Rainfield, mini book 1:6 scale.

CherylRainfield.com/cheryl-rainfields-miniature-books/ Free for personal use only.

Print. Cut cover and paste onto thin cardstock. Cut pages in one long horizontal strip, pages still connected. Accordion fold along lines of pages. Glue white backs of pages together. Glue along spine, insert into cover. Clamp with binder clamp until dry.

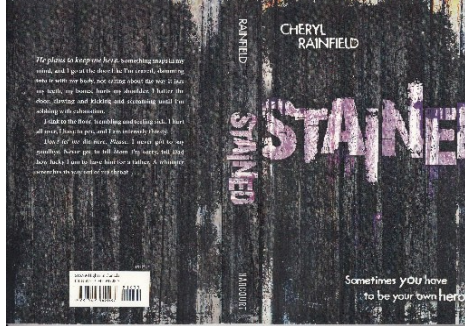

Table with 6 columns and 1 row. Each column contains a page of text from the book. The first column is the cover page with the title 'STAINED' and author 'CHERYL RAINFIELD'. The second column contains copyright information for Cheryl Rainfield. The third column contains a dedication: 'For Jean. You are my family—the loving family I never had. I feel so loved by you always, and I love you deeply. You (and Peter) are home.' The fourth column is the start of a chapter titled 'SARAH' and '8:00 AM'. The fifth and sixth columns contain the beginning of the story's narrative.

Table with 6 columns and 1 row. Each column contains a page of text from the book, continuing the narrative from the previous section. The text describes Sarah's thoughts and actions as she interacts with a man in a shop, her internal struggles, and her observations of the man's behavior and appearance.